

The City's Quick Response Grants support a range of small-scale initiatives for local residents, community groups and organisations.

QUICK RESPONSE GRANTS

Guidelines and Application 2024/25

About Quick Response Grants

Quick Response Grants are for small grants of up to $1,000 for proposals that fall outside the City's annual Community Funding Program. Applications can be made at any time, and applicants will be advised if they are successful within two weeks of their application being submitted.

Applications will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis until the allocation is exhausted.

This program will support small-scale initiatives that take place from 1 August 2024 to 30 June 2025. Applications for NAIDOC Week which falls in July each year will also be considered.

Funding Priorities

Applications must address at least one of the funding priorities to be eligible for assessment:

- Increasing community engagement and participation in local events and in community life, in particular by marginalised or disadvantaged population groups.
- Improving the health and wellbeing of local communities.
- Helping communities shape, understand and celebrate their identity, history and heritage.

What Can I Apply For?

Grants can be used for most aspects of an activity, including:

- Programming costs, including fees for presenters, instructors and performers (including travel costs);
- Production and venue costs, including materials and equipment hire;
- Marketing costs associated with promoting the funded activity;
- Council sponsorship for a one-off event or activity;
- Purchase of materials in order to deliver the activity.

Who Can Apply?

Eligibility

- Quick Response Grants are available to not-for-profit and incorporated community organisations based in the City of Albany, or which have a demonstrated, principal interest in the City.
- Individuals who are residents of the City of Albany and have a sponsoring, incorporated community group prepared to auspice the funds on their behalf and they can demonstrate specific benefits to the Albany community.
- Unincorporated organisations may seek the services of an incorporated body (sponsor) to auspice the activity on their behalf. The sponsor will be required to accept legal and financial responsibility for delivering the activity.

Ineligible Applications

- Individuals to attend sporting, conferences or training (please refer to the City's Community Leadership Grants for these activities);
- Retrospective or deficit funding;
- Recurrent expenditure such as salaries, wages, electricity, insurance, water, rates and other core organisational operating costs;
- Fees associated with administering the grant funding;
- Equipment purchases;
- Registration days, fundraising projects, prizes and trophies;
- Structural or capital works to facilities, including restoration or conservation works;
- Schools, government or quasi-government agencies.

Handy Tips for a Strong Application

- Answer all questions providing as much detail as possible and consider how your proposed project addresses funding priorities.
- Before submitting your application ensure you have proofread and if possible get a second person to as well, they may notice something you did not.
- Don't be afraid to ask questions if you are not sure what is required within your application.

Application Assessment

Applications for Community Funding will be assessed by the Community Development Coordinator against the following criteria:

- The application addresses at least one funding priority.
- Demonstrated genuine community need for the activity.
- Demonstrated value for money.

Applicants should answer all questions provided with as much detail as necessary. When completing the application form consider how your proposed activity addresses the criteria above. Letters of support for the proposed activity and indicative quotes for budget items are encouraged.

The Community Relations Manager will approve recommended applicants for funding, with all applicants advised of the outcome of their application within two weeks of receipt by the City where possible.

Approval is at the City's absolute discretion and subject to available budget.

Conditions of Funding

Successful applicants will be required to sign a funding agreement with the City. Auspicing organisations will enter into a funding agreement with the City on behalf of the individual or unincorporated organisation whose activity they are sponsoring.

Canvassing of elected members will automatically disqualify the application from consideration.

Event Approvals

Applicants who receive funding to host an event must seek the relevant approvals from the City's Events Team by contacting 6820 3035 or eventsapprovals@albany.wa.gov.au.

ABN and Tax Status

Successful applicants without an ABN must complete a Statement by a Supplier form in order to be funded. Statement by a Supplier forms are available to download from the City website as a PDF or can be obtained from Australia Post.

The City cannot release funds to individuals or organisations without an ABN or signed Statement by a Supplier form.

Applicants must advise of their organisations' GST status. If registered for the GST individuals or organisations must supply a tax invoice to receive funds.
