EOI - ARTS WORKSHOP FACILITATOR

The Business Side of Arts is series of professional development workshops designed to equip local artists and creatives with the business, marketing and practical skills required to support their success as an arts practitioner. Workshops will be delivered by Albany Business Centre, local specialist arts practitioners and City of Albany Arts & Culture team staff.

This project is supported by DLGSC's Leveraged Creative and Cultural Planning Grants Program.

These workshops commenced in July 2023 and will continue through until early 2024.

City of Albany invites artists and curators to register an expression of interest for the delivery of the following two-hour workshop:

Exhibition Basics

Thursday 19 October 2023, 5.30-7.30pm at Vancouver Arts Centre

Everything artists need to know to prepare for an exhibition, including:

- where to put D rings.
- how to store, package and ship artwork.
- installation techniques - the science behind hanging.
- basic curation techniques.
- how to make an artwork label and what to include.
- basic lighting techniques.
- catalogue content requirements.

This workshop will be delivered in conjunction with Indra Geidans, the City of Albany Visual Arts Officer, and will require a programming meeting prior to the workshop presentation.

Fee for delivery and planning time is $500 (+ GST).

Please provide an expanded CV / Biography highlighting your suitability for the delivery of this workshop along with 3 jpg images of your art practice.
