

FORM 2D: ENROLMENT ELIGIBILITY CLAIM NOMINATION BY BODY CORPORATE

REGULATION 11 OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT (ELECTIONS) REGULATIONS 1997

Under section 4.32(2) of the Local Government Act 1995 (the Act), you may nominate up to 2 persons to vote for your body corporate using this form at any time. However, if you want to be on the roll for a particular election, you must give your claim form to the local government more than 57 days before the election date.

You should fill in this form if your body corporate wants your nominees to vote at local government elections for that district and you:

- own or occupy rateable property in a district; and
- the nominees are not on the residents roll in that district.

To qualify as an occupier, your body corporate must:

1. have a right, under a lease, tenancy agreement or other legal instrument, to be in continuous occupation of a rateable property in the local government district for at least the last 12 months.
2. have a right, under a lease, tenancy agreement or other legal instrument, to be in continuous occupation of the property for at least the next 3 months.

The occupied property must also comply with minimum standards set in the Act and Local Government (Elections) Regulations 1997. If you are an occupier and your enrolment eligibility claim is accepted, it will expire in accordance with section 4.33 of the Act (usually 6 months after the second ordinary election after your claim was accepted) or when your lease expires. If you wish to continue to qualify as an elector after that, you will need to make another enrolment eligibility claim and nomination.

Attach this form where you are claiming enrolment eligibility as the nominee of a body corporate alongside either Form 2A or Form 2B.

When you have completed this form, email it to your local government with the relevant enrolment form for the elector. You may also send it by post or other electronic means so long as it is capable of being printed in its entirety, including any signature. If you send it electronically, you should request confirmation of receipt.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) are mandatory, if applicable.
