

THIS IS SUE.

LOCAL HISTORY CO-ORDINATOR.

HERE ARE SOME OF THE WAYS SUE PRESERVES AND PROMOTES THE HISTORY OF YOUR CITY.

HISTORY ARCHIVES

Sue helps our community discover information about family, places and events of the past by retrieving information from historical records such as photographs, maps, newspapers and more.

ANZAC FAMILY HERITAGE

Do you have an Anzac in your family? is a community driven project where you can share information about your Anzac family heritage. Sue and her team have myriad resources in the Albany History Collection to discover more about your family's heritage.

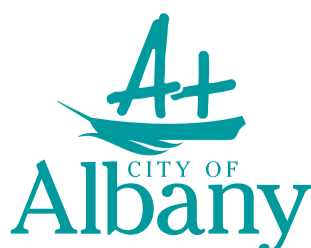

ALBANY MEMORIAL PARK CEMETERY

Sue and the team at the Albany History Collection have developed two informative Anzac walks taking you on a journey through Albany's heritage listed Memorial Park Cemetery. Visit the Library's website for more information.

PHOTO CATALOGUE

Ever wondered what Albany looked like 150 years ago? The Albany History Collection has an extensive archive of photographs dating all the way back to 1858, including aerial images of the town.
